

Biography

Hope Street is a Canberra-based band writing, composing and performing original music and songs.

Hope Street songs are atmospheric piano-based pop and groove compositions, accompanied by software instruments orchestrated and arranged through the musical brilliance of Sara Vancea. They create songs that are thoughtful, energetic and intricate with beautiful vocal tones that take us to a place of hope.

Hope Street is Sara Vancea – piano, vocals, software instruments, and Clayton McDonald – drums.

They describe their music and songs as ‘thoughtful pop – energetic groove’, delivering return performances at Art, Not Apart, National Portrait Gallery and Floriade.
